VIRTUS TRAINING: MONDAY, AUGUST 12

Virtus, the awareness session of the Archdiocese's child abuse program Protecting God's Children, is required training for all adults who work with the children/youth of our parish.

Who should attend this training session? All parents, anyone who plans to work in the parish nursery ministry, assist/teach in any of the parish Religious Education programs, parents who want to volunteer in the school or with school activities. The material presented is good information for all parishioners.

The next Virtus session hosted at St. John Church will be held in the church basement on Monday, August 12, from 6:30 p.m. to approximately 9:30 p.m.

To register for this session - please visit the Virtus website: www.virtus.org. Select "registration" on the left hand side of the page and follow the prompts. If you have any questions or need assistance with registration, please contact Lois at (785) 843-0109 or email her at Imersmann@saint-johns.net.

Coming Soon to St. John Parish: A New Nursery Ministry!

Don't Miss the Information Meeting:
August 1st at 6:30 p.m.
in the Bosco Room (lower level of the new building)

Why a new nursery program?

- ◆ To increase participation in the Mass and other programs by parents with young families (thereby becoming a more Christ-centered parish), a nursery program is essential.
- ◆ As Catholics, families are at the core of our community. We want to care for and serve our youngest members of the parish with particular and deliberate concern for their development and well-being.
- ◆ The new nursery program will initially roll-out to cover 1030a.m. Mass on Sunday (this is the most attended by families) and Wednesday Night Intergenerational Faith Formation nights. Other ministries will be covered as our volunteer base grows.
- ◆ You are all invited to the information meeting - we'll see you there!

FAITH-FILLED CATHOLIC WOMEN

There will be a new study coming to St. John for any women in the parish who are interested in exploring how the lessons in the Bible relate to our everyday lives.

Through the sharing of experiences with other women in a small group setting, this program will address themes that will resonate with women including acceptance, forgiveness, holiness, sacrifice, and more.

With prayer as its cornerstone, you will find this creative program both convenient and rewarding! If you are interested please contact Connie Ehrlich at (785) 218-1844 or via email at cjehrllich@sunflower.com.

We will publish time and location in future bulletins!

Please grab a Children's Weekly Bulletin on your way out of Mass today. The bulletins are a great way to continue the conversation and capture the essence of the Sunday Gospel reading.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION ENROLLMENT

Enrollment for all parish religious education programs will take place in the church basement after all weekend Masses on August 17-18.

Classes are offered for children three years of age through fifth grade, and for middle school students in sixth through eighth grades. Eighth grade students prepare for confirmation.

Please register your child/student on that weekend (Aug. 17-18) so that we can have materials ready for them at the first class.

A FAREWELL PARTY FOR FR. JOHN & FR. GILMARY!

July 28, 2013 after the 5:00 p.m. Mass

We will be having a Farewell Party for Fr. John & Fr. Gilmary on Sunday, July 28 after the 5pm Mass.

We will provide the BBQ meat and beverages. You bring a side dish or dessert! It will be a great time to say goodbye to Fr. John and Fr. Gilmary and share in fellowship with your St. John community.

Have questions?

Please call Samantha Romero at (785) 843-0109 or email sromero@saint-johns.net.

AN EVENING OF VIOLIN MUSIC

Friday, July 26, 7:00 pm

St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church

If you have wanted to hear more of violinist Lukasz Lagun, your chance is coming soon.

He will be presenting a concert on Friday, July 26, at 7:00pm right here at St. John, with accompaniment by Lisa Roush.

He is wanting to pursue getting a Green Card, but needs to raise money to pay lawyer and application fees. The concert will serve as both another opportunity for the parish to hear him play outside of Mass as well as a means of raising some funds.

The concert is free, but donations will be graciously accepted.

PARISH GIFT FOR OUR PRIESTS!

If you would like to be part of the parish farewell gift for Fr. John and Fr. Gilmary please put your donation in the collection baskets with "farewell gift" in the memo line.

You can also mail or drop your donation by the Simon Parish Center.

Please contact Cris Denning at cdenning@saint-johns.net or (785) 843-0109 with any questions.

FIESTA WRAP-UP

The Fiesta wrap-up meeting will be Tuesday, July 23rd at 7:00 p.m. in the Church hall/basement.

Contact Frank Lemus with any questions: flemusjr@sbcglobal.net

NURSERY MINISTRY HELP

Volunteers are needed to help get the nursery set up this week! We need people willing to move things and people willing to paint. Food will be provided.

If you can help at 9:30 a.m. on either Thursday, July 18 or Friday, July 19 please call Samantha Romero at (785) 843-0109 or email her at sromero@saint-johns.net.

Any help you can offer is appreciated!

BREWS & Q' RAFFLE ITEMS

We are in need of donations for the raffles for the Brews & Q' event. We are looking for new grilling accessories, a cooler, your favorite BBQ sauce, or any other items you associate with summer and grilling! These donations can be brought to the Simon Parish Center.

Contact Samantha at 785.843.0109 or sromero@saint-johns.net with questions. Thank you for your generosity!

CALLING WOMEN AGES 18-65

Are you Catholic? Do you identify as feminist?

If you answered 'yes' to both and are willing to share your thoughts on your beliefs, please contact Jessica Pauly at catholicandfeminist@gmail.com

Jessica is conducting research - as a master's student at KU - on this topic, and is hoping to interview interested parties during this summer. Interviews should take about an hour. Thank you in advance for your consideration!

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS

Do you ever wish you knew more about the Mass? What do the gestures mean? Why does the priest say and do what he does? How can I keep from being distracted?

Come to: "Understanding the Mass," presented by Msgr. Vince Krische at Corpus Christi on four Sundays: July 21, 28, August 4, 11, from 6:00-7:00 p.m.

Questions & Answers

July 22 is the feast of Mary Magdalene. Who was she and is it true that she was a prostitute who followed Jesus around in his ministry?

Recent biblical scholarship has been trying for a long time to correct Mary Magdalene's misconstrued reputation as a prostitute. Biblical information reveals her as one of the most important disciples of Jesus, following and financially supporting him during his ministry. She is also a faithful witness both to the Crucifixion and the first to see the risen Jesus. Further, in John's Gospel, she is commissioned by the risen Jesus to announce the good news to his disciples. Thus, she becomes the first evangelizer and proclaimer of the risen Lord.

Her reputation as a prostitute arose from the misunderstandings of certain texts in Luke. Luke 8:2 reports Mary as being a follower of Jesus "from whom seven demons had gone out." This passage follows Luke's story of the sinful woman, a prostitute, who bathed Jesus' feet with her tears and dried them with her hair. Since that woman is not named, there came to be an association of that woman with Mary Magdalene, "from whom seven demons had gone out." Thus Mary became known as a prostitute.

The readings and prayers for her feast day make no mention of her reputation as a sinner. Rather, they emphasize and highlight her role as the first witness to the risen Lord, and the first one commissioned by Jesus to tell of the good news to the disciples. Let us continue to be Mary Magdalene to the world.

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In any household with more than one child, parents have to deal with sibling rivalry. The more benign forms find expression in simple competition, in which one child strives to do better than another in contests or sports. At other times, the rivalry shows itself in a negative light, offering up comments on who's not doing what, whether that is schoolwork or household chores. The supposedly aggrieved child has a heightened sense of justice, often proclaiming that the other child seems to get away with doing less.

It almost seems as though this is what is playing out in the Gospel story today between Martha and Mary. Martha wants Jesus to be the arbiter of the dispute, much as if she would be running to Mom or Dad. Mary seems to have found the sweet spot, sitting at the Teacher's feet. Plenty of German-inspired stained glass windows show exactly that, portraying Mary with an almost beatific quality to her face, while Martha stands in the background with a rather sour grimace. Jesus sits between them as though he is the referee between the two feuding sisters.

Since the time of Augustine the story of Martha and Mary has often been interpreted as a commentary on the difference between the active and contemplative life-with the contemplative winning out. It's hard to imagine that a Gospel such as Luke's, so filled with stories of compassion and assistance, would profess that view. It is Luke's Gospel that includes the story of the good Samaritan, the classic example of active love of neighbor. Maybe a better way for us to understand the story of Martha and Mary is this: Mary's example is a reminder that we must clearly hear what Jesus is teaching. We cannot just run about acting as we always have. Rather, we need to take his teaching to heart, and in that way ensure that our actions are based on his commands.

Kids: Sharing the Gospel

Sharing the Gospel

God created work for each of us to do, and it is important to do it. But Martha was upset because she forgot to stop and make time for Jesus. Mary had the right idea. She took a break from her work to listen to Jesus. Time with Jesus is precious, so we need to make time to rest and enjoy his love.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for reminding me to stop and enjoy time with you.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of yourself sitting next to Jesus in your favorite chair.

Mission for the Week

Ask your family to join you in reading the Bible or praying at meal time.

16º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Al escuchar este Evangelio siempre tendemos a interpretarlo equivocadamente, sobretodo cuando pensamos que María, la contemplativa, es la buena y Martha, la activa, es la mala. La conducta de Martha -que también es amiga de Jesús- ignora los grandes beneficios que se alcanzan al poner a Jesús como centro de nuestra vida. Los quehaceres cotidianos la absorben y difícilmente puede sentarse a escuchar al Maestro. Es como la semilla que cae en tierra estéril. La gran diferencia es que María se sienta a los pies del Maestro a escuchar de la palabra de Dios. Ya el trabajo se hará después. ¿Cuál es tu opinión de estas dos mujeres? ¿Qué actitudes de ambas debemos de imitar?

Todo es cuestión de fe y de darnos cuenta de que Jesús ofrece a sus discípulos el saber discernir y actuar tomando la mejor parte en cada momento de nuestras vidas. Los papeles de Martha y de María son esenciales. No debemos de estar rezando cuando tenemos alguna responsabilidad que cumplir, ni debemos de trabajar cuando es el tiempo de estar con el Maestro. Tener las prioridades de Jesús es esencial; las nuestras no son importantes. A veces tenemos tanta actividad que no tenemos tiempo de entrar a alguna iglesia para visitar al Santísimo. Ojalá que la palabra de Dios no quede sofocada en nuestro activismo. No olvidemos que en Cristo nosotros somos la revelación de Dios para otros. Nuestra meta debe saber tener balance en la vida. El personaje de María es el modelo a seguir y ella le invita a Martha a hacer lo mismo.
